YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance, and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of their business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

NON DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

DECLARATION

I/We hereby declare that the information provided by me/us in this declaration is true and correct and that I/we have read and understand the Duty of Disclosure notice above. I/We also agree that this declaration can be used in underwriting the proposed renewal of the policy of insurance and therefore the basis of the contract of insurance between me/us and the underwriter, if so approved by the underwriter.
